CORRESPONDENCE.

(We decline responsibility for the opinions and statements of our correspondents.)

To the Editor of The Record:

Sir:—That Port Arthur has got $12,000 from the Dominion Government. However, this is small amount for Port Arthur in comparison to the hundreds of thousands of dollars that have been spent in the harbor to enable steamboats to lie at the docks, while the steamboats on

Rainy river have to lie at the rapids for want of improvement, and to be filled up by the passengers, Indians and squaws. We are a long suffering people, but there is a time when patience ceases to be a virtue. I am of opinion that time has arrived. What have we done, or what have we left undone, that we should be treated in this manner? Have we not always stood by S. J. Dawson, late M.P., and did we not stand by G. H. McDonald,

M.P.? But suppose we had not done so, is that any reason why our requirements should be neglected? It is very true Simon J. Dawson and the thousand five hundred dollars for Rainy river improvements, but what because of it? It was never expended and went back to the common treasury. Is the two thousand five hundred dollars voted last session going to show the same fate? It looks very much like it. It is now January, and there is not a dollar of it spent, and it is altogether likely the House of Commons will meet in a month, when we will be told that it has been felched down in the estimates, and no doubt will be passed. Why should this state of things be? Are we not competent men to do the work? It is well known that this is the season of the year to get out the timber, and I am told by a gentleman who is in a position to know, that timber can be got in the vicinity of the rapids, and that this is the only season of the year it can be got out. I would suggest that the new council take this matter in hand, as the improvement of Rainy river is of great importance to Rat

Portage. In the event of a railway going through from Duluth to Winnipeg and touching on the river it would be a serious matter. What we ought to have is improvement on the river so as to enable our steamers to pass, and the completion of the Fort

Frances lock.

NAVIGATOR.

DEWNEY AND DAVIN.

Hon. R. Dewdney, Minister of the Interior, was in the city on Friday last, on his way to the West. He was accompanied by S. P. Davis, M. P.

of Regina, and Dewdney, on his way to the coast, had a long conference with the local authorities. He was accompanied by a large number of people, and he was very much impressed with the progress of the work. He was very much impressed with the progress of the

OUR PROMINENT MEN.

by HARRY J. POWERS.

There's a Hays, Davies, and Gardner

too.

P. Hays and Campbell when a big trade comes in, they are all of them prominent

men.

To meet your demands whenever you go and they are all of them prominent

men.

There's a Gibson the butcher sells fat meat and lean.

And Hays and Davies, with a street just between

They want you a roast, either tender or tough.

And throw in the hilt if there's fast enough

For they are all of them prominent

men.

There's a Phillips the baker, and McDonald

the shoemaker.

To fit you with shoes and stuff you with pie.

They never use meat to flavor their bread!

And Hays and Davies are as light as feather, he said;

They are all of them prominent

men.

Hillard, Arnold and Rigby, they all run

the boats.

There's the head-quarters of Winnipeg swells,

And when a poor dude ever chances to roam

He knows where to go for a friend and a home.

For they are all of them prominent

men.

There's our doctors too, all men of renown,

With a northern people that live in the town.

They will save a man up with the greatest ease.

And charge but ten dollars which they call charity fees.

And they are all of them prominent

men.

Next come our dentists who sit without cause.

Pull out the wrong tooth and demolish your face.

With a pair of big forceps they'll pull and they'll tear.

Every bone from your head while you sit in the chair.

And they are all of them prominent

men.

There is Campbell, our Reeve, and valiant

J. N.

Who fought and defeated McCutty one day

When a poor skin and hair did grow all the ground.

And the air smelt of murder for ten miles around.

They are all of them prominent

men.

There's our merchants also who deal in hardware.

There's the market where their goods are cheap.

They've a full line of goods, ever ready to sell.

At a price they call low, which is all very well.

They are all of them prominent

men.

Then come our laborer Nichols and Bove

They're both here to stay, they're making things that

They will make a full set of pants, coat and trousers.

That would fit a pork barrel, if it could be

There's our two lumber companies, each

runs a saw mill.

With a line of lumber your order they'll fill.

Their common stock, on file as to A. No. 1

Is very good stuff when it's sold in the mill.

And they are all of them prominent

men.

There's the Electric Light company of modern reason.

Who furnish the light for our fast growing town.

The Telephone company also with them join.

And convey all our messages over their line.

They are all of them prominent

men.

There's our worthy postmaster, a genial

man.

Who to oblige us, does all that he can

He's another good fellow, open-hearted and free.

But will not take sugar for cream in his tea.

He is one of our prominent

men.

There's Campbell our Reeve, in the stationery line.

And fancy goods too, with a stock very fine.

From a store to an anchor, you can buy at his store.

Anything you wish, and good bargain sensure.

He's the chief of our prominent

men.

Then comes Mr. Savage, to all his war paint

With a granite face, and the smile of a child.

He is chief of his tribe, and a very good

man.

And he'll hold a big pow-wow as soon as he can.

He is one of our prominent

men.

There's Chadwick our councillor, a popular

man.

Who 'got there' as soon as the election came.

There's Belyen likewise of telegraph fame,

Who rap like a deer and got there just the same.

They are both of them prominent

men.

Next comes Mr. Nash, another big gun,

Who as a candidate made a big run

His name is familiar to all in the town,

And now he's a decent fellow do us up brown

For it's one of our prominent

men.

Then comes our Bobby with Woods to assign.

In kindly leading you home by the wrist

They're kind and attentive, they won't let you go.

Fill their safety land on you out of the snack.

And they also are prominent

men.

There's Tommy the Chicken, who lives on the shore.

And a great many more who could afford

fill.

Then come the folks who pay all expenses

big taxes, etc., for men of capital.

And they are all of them prominent

men.

There's only two more that I want to name.

One is the 'Reeve' the other the 'Reeve'

One tells the truth, while the other hard tried.

And that is where all the difference lies:

For they are both prominent

men.

NORMAN.

A number of men came down from the woods this week.

Mr. D. C. Cameron returned on Thursday from a visit to the lumber camps.

All the planing mills are shut down, but are expected to start up again in about a month.

The lumbermen are expecting a very busy season next year, and that the rush will begin early.

Mr. S. W. Ward, of Rainy river, who has been here on a visit, started yesterday on his return home.

If you want to buy or sell a farm, advertisement in the Weekly Mail. That paper reaches 100,000 farmers' homes every week and your advertisement should meet the eye of some one who wants to purchase. Advertisements of this class are inserted in the Toronto Weekly Mail for Five Cents a word for each insertion or Twenty Cents a word for five insertions. Address The Mail, Toronto, Canada.
